THE NATIONAL Bulletin of Charities AND Correction.

A CHRONICLE OF THE WORK OF THE NATIONAL CONFERENCE OF CHARITIES AND CORRECTION AND KINDRED ORGANIZATIONS.

VOLUME II.

FEBRUARY, 1898.

THE MAY BULLETIN.

The BULLETIN for May will contain full particulars, in detail, respecting the Quarter Centennial meeting of the National Conference of Charities and Correction, including railroad rates, hotel rates, program, etc. It will be issued about April 20th or 25th and will be sent to all persons who receive this number.

TO THOSE NOT MEMBERS.

This number of the NATIONAL BULLETIN OF CHARITIES AND CORRECTION is sent to many who are not members.

You are invited to become a member of the Conference, if not already a member. There are no limitations to membership, and attendance on the Conference is not a condition. The membership fee of $2.50 includes the volume of Proceedings of 500 pages, octavo, cloth bound, price $1.50; and the NATIONAL BULLETIN OF CHARITIES AND CORRECTION for one year, price $1.00.

The Conference has now about 1200 members, representing most of the states of the Union and the Canadian Provinces.

The membership of the Conference for the years named was as follows: 1893, 330; 1894, 350; 1895, 992; 1896, 1186; 1897, 1178. The membership includes officers and trustees of charitable and correctional institutions; officers and members of charitable societies; members of social settlements; professors of colleges and universities; clergymen, and philanthropists generally.

Enclosed will be found a blank for remittance.

WHAT IS THE NATIONAL CONFERENCE OF CHARITIES AND CORRECTION.

The National Conference of Charities and Correction was organized in 1874, and has met annually since that time. It is composed not only of representatives of charitable and correctional institutions and societies, but also of other men and women who are interested in the broad field of charity in the United States, Canada and Mexico, and has at the present time nearly 1,200 members.

The meetings of the Conference are very enjoyable. They bring together a large body of people who are earnestly interested in good works, and who constitute a pleasant and congenial fellowship. The Conference continues for a week. General meetings are held daily, and section meetings are also held for the discussion of special subjects, such as Charity Organization, Dependent Children, Insanity, Juvenile Reformation, Prison Reform, Hospitals, Municipal and County Charities, and College Settlements.

The Conference has no tests of membership. It offers a free forum to all who are interested in these branches of Sociology. It formulates no platform, and usually adopts only resolutions of thanks. It publishes its discussions in the annual volume of Proceedings, each writer being responsible for his own opinions, and the volume of Proceedings comprises the latest and freshest thoughts upon the subjects under consideration.

The annual membership fee of $2.50 is applied as follows: a. To the publication of the Proceedings, which cost in 1895, delivered, $1.20 per copy; b, to the publication of the National Bulletin of Charities and Correction; c, to the expenses of the Conference, postage, printing, clerk hire, investigations, and other items.

NEW MEMBERS.

New members are welcomed at any time. Each member joining during 1898 will receive the Proceedings of the New York Conference and the National Bulletin for one year. Attendance on the meetings is not a condition of membership; but members attending obtain reduced fares, reduced hotel rates, and other advantages.

SPECIAL OFFER.

The Proceedings of 1895 (the New Haven Conference) were of special value. We have still a limited supply of this volume, which we will furnish, express prepaid, to our members only, at half price (75 cents per copy), until further notice. Those wishing to avail themselves of this offer should order immediately.

SETS OF PROCEEDINGS.

There are frequent inquiries for sets of the Proceedings. The first Conference was held in 1874. The volumes of Proceedings prior to 1881 are out of print, except that of 1874. The volumes for 1874, 1881 and succeeding years will be furnished at $1.50 each, or in quantities of five or more at $1.25 each, bound in cloth.

Those who cannot afford to purchase the entire set would do well to begin with 1893. The volume for 1893 is the most important volume yet published. It contains a historical summary of the work of Charities and Correction in the United States for twenty years, with an index of the preceding volumes. Its value is indicated by the fact that in addition to 1450 copies originally sold, more than 400 copies of the Proceedings of 1893 have been sold since January 1, 1895.

TO OUR MEMBERS.

The membership fee of $2.50 for 1898 is now payable. It will be a convenience if remittances are made promptly as the expenses of the Conference of 1898 have already commenced. A blank for remittance will be found enclosed. Members of the Conference will be continued on the roll and the BULLETIN will be sent to them, unless instructions are received to the contrary. Members finding it necessary, for any reason, to cancel their membership, will please notify the general secretary.

BACK VOLUMES OF PROCEEDINGS WANTED.

We have numerous applications for the volumes of Proceedings from 1875 to 1880 inclusive, which are now, unfortunately, out of print. We shall take pleasure in exchanging volume for volume the Proceedings of later years for the volumes mentioned, and will pay the cost of postage in making the exchange. Those having these earlier volumes to spare will confer a great favor by attending to this request.

THE PROCEEDINGS OF THE TORONTO CONFERENCE.

The publication of the Proceedings of the Toronto Conference has been unavoidably delayed; partly on account of the size of the book and the number of writers to whom proof had to be sent, and partly on account of the necessary absence of the editor on attendance on the National Prison Congress at Austin, Texas, and in visiting the prisons of Monterey and the city of Mexico. It is expected that the book will be issued not later than March 1st, and copies will be furnished at once to all the members of the Conference.

MEMBERSHIP OF THE CONFERENCE OF 1897.

The membership of the National Conference of Charities and Correction for 1897 is 1,177, as compared with 1,199 in 1896, 992 in 1895, 350 in 1894, and 330 in 1893.

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE MEETING.

The Executive Committee of the National Conference of Charities and Correction met at the call of the president at the United Charities Building, in the City of New York, Jan. 28, 1898, at 11 o'clock A. M.

There were present, President Wm. R. Stewart, in the chair, Mrs. C. R. Lowell, Hon. Philip C. Garrett, Dr. Chas. S. Hoyt, Mr. Jeffrey R. Brackett, Dr. Geo. H. Knight, and Mr. H. H. Hart.

It was voted that papers to be read in the General Sessions be limited to not exceeding 2400 words.

It was voted that the President be authorized to correspond with the chairmen of the several committees and have power to make final decision with reference to the several programs after such correspondence, and that he be authorized to call their attention to the rule limiting them to one hour for reports and papers.

On motion of Mrs. Lowell it was voted that the chairmen of committees be requested to forward their reports not later than April 15th and that the reports be printed in advance at the expense of the Conference.

It was voted to authorize the general secretary to correspond with mayors and representatives of local institutions asking them to appoint delegates.

An invitation was presented from the Trans-Mississippi and International Exposition to hold a special meeting in Omaha in the early part of September 1898.

The general secretary was instructed to reply to the letter, saying that the invitation had been favorably considered by the Committee; but that the Committee was not authorized to accept such an invitation. The Committee however will take pleasure in presenting the invitation to the Conference in May.

On motion of Dr. Knight it was voted that, in view of the printing of the committees' reports at the expense of the Conference, the reading of the reports at the general meetings be left to the discretion of the president, after consultation with the respective chairmen.

Resolutions were adopted, requesting the attendance at the opening meeting, of the President of the United States, the Vice President of the United States, the Governor of New York, the Mayor of the City of New York, Archbishop Michael A. Corrigan, D. D., Rt. Rev. Henry Potter, D. D. Adjourned.

LOCAL CONFERENCES.

THE COLORADO STATE CONFERENCE.

The fourth State Conference of Charities and Corrections met at Colorado Springs January 9-11, 1898. About seventy-five delegates were present. The interest in the Conference was remarkable. Mrs. S. S. Platt, president of the State Board of Charities and Corrections, was also president of the Conference. She is a woman of great ability and presided admirably.

At the opening meeting Sunday evening a great audience was present. Governor Alva Adams delivered an able address showing a strong grasp of the principles which should govern the administration of state institutions. He said: "To point the way in which state and individual will suffer least loss in their work of philanthropy and justice is the purpose of the charities and corrections organization. Man makes no greater blunders than in some of his well intended efforts to do good. Half the benevolence of the world is wasted for want of scientific knowledge upon questions this Conference will consider." * * * "We are not detectives or officers, we seek not the criminal, not the individual culprit, but the source of crime and misfortune, that it may be sealed up." * * * "A new state is under bonds, under obligations, to civilization to be better, more perfect, than the older states. Not to improve on all that has gone on before is an impeachment of the demands of progress and a reflection upon the delinquent commonwealth."

The meetings, except the opening meeting, were held in the Coburn Library building of Colorado College. On Monday morning Mrs. Izetta George, secretary of the Denver Charity Organization Society, read a paper on "Charity Organization and Association," and Rev. S. P. Wilder, of Colorado, opened the discussion.

Mrs. Fred. Butler of Denver made a remarkable address on "Pingree Farm Work as an Aid to Charities"; she made it evident that in Denver the Pingree work had been carried on almost ideally, with the result of bringing rich and poor into sympathy and co-operation to an extraordinary degree.

Rev. T. H. Malone of Denver, a member of the State Board of Charities and Corrections, made a vigorous address on "State, County and Municipal Care of the Poor."

The Conference visited the Colorado School for Mute and Blind, where luncheon was served and the work of the pupils was exhibited.

On Monday afternoon prison work was discussed. Hon. J. Warner Mills of Denver made an address on "Prison Labor and Industrial Training for Convicts." Warden C. P. Hoyt of the State Reformatory opened the discussion, taking courageous ground in favor of productive industrial employment for convicts. Mrs. H. C. Olney read a paper on "Prisoners' Aid Society," on which the discussion was opened by Warden W. H. Conley of the Arapahoe County Jail.

On Monday evening "Child Saving" was discussed. President Wm. F. Slocum, LL. D., of Colorado College, made a notable address on "Child Saving and Reformatory Industrial Schools" which paved the way for an interesting discussion opened by Supt. North of the Denver Public Schools and participated in by representatives of child saving institutions and societies. Miss Isabel Hill of Denver read a paper on "Kitchen Gardening," and Mrs. Chas. E. Dickinson of Denver delivered a sparkling address on "Educational Measures for the Prevention of Crime." Hon. J. M. Ellis, judge of the Municipal Court in the city of Denver, read a paper on "Vagrancy" in which he said: "My opinion is that the tramp is the result in part of our present system of finance. As has been well said by a distinguished Colorado writer: 'Low wages and the gold standard go hand in hand. They cannot be separated. * * * 'The reason for it is plain. An appreciated standard of value depreciates the value of all industrial products, and labor is an important factor in the costs of all production.'"

On Tuesday morning Chancellor Wm. F. McDowell of the State University presided. Dr. J. T. Eskridge, president of the Board of Trustees of the Colorado State Insane Asylum, made an address on "The Care of the Insane and Feeble Minded," which was followed by an animated discussion. Among the speakers was Miss Agnes Hoyt, daughter of Dr. Chas. S. Hoyt of Canandaigua, N. Y., who made an excellent address.

The Conference adjourned to attend the dedication of the new Ticknor Hall for young women at Colorado College. This is a charming building with accommodations for 50 young women. Though the expense of living in the building will be reduced to a minimum and the table will be plain, the building has been artistically furnished by friends of the institution with a view to cultivating high ideals in home making.

Tuesday afternoon Hon. J. W. Lowell, Auditor of State, made an address on "What Financial Support Can the State Give"; Mr. Henry Van Kleeck of Denver made an address on "Civil Service in State Institutions" which was followed by an interesting discussion; Mr. Francis B. Hill of Colorado Springs spoke on "Humane Society Work" and Mrs. J. S. Sperry, the veteran charity worker of Pueblo, participated in the discussion.

On Tuesday evening the closing meeting was held. Mr. H. H. Hart, General Secretary of the National Conference of Charities and Correction, spoke on "Jail Management." In the course of his address he called attention to the dangerous condition of some of the Colorado lockups, whose construction exposed their inmates to the liability of cremation. A vivid justification of this criticism occurred four weeks later within twenty miles of Colorado Springs, when four prisoners were roasted in the lockup at Victor, Colorado.

The closing address of the Conference was made by the president Mrs. Sarah S. Platt, who summed up the work of the Conference.

This Conference was one of unusual interest and developed the intelligent interest which is taken by the Colorado people in their public institutions. A strong public sentiment favors the wise development of the institutions and their complete separation from partisan influences.

THE DELAWARE STATE CONFERENCE.

For several years an annual Conference of Charities and Corrections has been held in the city of Wilmington. While this Conference has not been called a State Conference, it has been such in effect and will hereafter be classed as a State Conference of Charities and Correction. The next meeting will probably be held in April, 1898. The program has not yet come to hand.

The fifth annual Conference of Charities and Institutions was opened Thursday evening, May 6, 1897, and continued the following afternoon and evening in the New-Century Club parlors at Wilmington. After prayer by Dr. McCurdy and the address of welcome by President J. F. Ball, which was an earnest plea for increased co-operation in order to achieve more effective results, he presented Miss Katharine B. Davis, from the college settlement in Philadelphia, who spoke earnestly in behalf of "Children's Play Grounds and other Summer Work." She maintained that through the various features of summer work which had been introduced of late years, the greatest benefits had been derived. The friendly visitor or teacher has opportunity to come in closer relations with the mothers and little ones, and friendships are formed which prove of mutual and enduring good. Several instances were cited of college settlement experiences which were most encouraging.

Rev. W. I. Nichols, superintendent of the Brooklyn Bureau of Charities spoke convincingly on the "Cultivation of Vacant City Lots." Mr. Nichols claimed that such occupation for the unemployed was of great value, both from a moral and economic standpoint. They had the opportunity of raising food necessary for their consumption and the wholesome lessons learned by the children from assisting in tilling the soil and weeding the gardens, had proved most important. Much poverty and suffering was thus relieved and many most desirous of being self-maintaining became so in this manner. The speaker related several personal experiences proving that the system of cultivating vacant city lots was a wise and useful step towards helping in the right and true way.

After the interesting discussion which followed, an informal tea was served by the "Visitors" of the Associated Charities in honor of the guests, when many friends pleasantly participated in this social feature of the evening.

On Friday afternoon reports from delegates of the following institutions and societies were presented: Home for Friendless Children, Home for Aged Women, Ferris Industrial School, Girls Industrial School, Delaware and Homeopathic Hospital, Home for Aged Couples, St. Joseph's Home, St. Michael's Day Nursery and Hospital for Babies, Door of Hope, Sarah Ann White Home for Aged Colored People, Female Benevolent Society, S. P. C. C. and S. P. C. A. Societies, St. Vincent de Paul Society, Delaware Union for Public Good, Needle Work Guild, Sunday Breakfast Ass'n, and the Associated Charities. Dr. Hancker, superintendent of the State Hospital for the Insane reported the new building was about complete by which a very satisfactory classification of patients could be made. Reports were read from New Castle and Sussex County almshouses, also New Castle jail. A report was read by Mrs. Wogan of the work as assistant "Police Matron" which filled all hearts with tender sympathy for the painful and faithful duties they are called on to perform. Rev. L. J. Welbers then spoke on "What is the Proper Care of Infants in Institutions," which elicited much helpful discussion.

The evening was devoted to the subject of "School Savings Banks," by Mrs. Oberholtzer of Philadelphia, who explained in an interesting way that valuable system of saving. "The Best Employment for Prisoners" was presented by Mr. Joseph James, superintendent of the Chester County prison, which was ably discussed by Hon. Chas. B. Lore and Rev. T. A. McCurdy. Plans for a new State Workhouse and Reformatory were exhibited and fully explained, and resolutions were passed by the meeting urging the Legislature to reconsider this urgent need for the State.

The exhibit of industrial features of the Ferris School for Boys, the Delaware School for Girls, the Sunday Breakfast Ass'n, the Benevolent and Provident Societies and the Associated Charities was highly commended, as all gave evidence of good management and training.

The Conference, as a whole, was conceded as one of exceeding interest and most successful; for the coming together of those devoted to humanitarian causes is inspiring to all.—From the Thirteenth Annual Report of the Associated Charities of Wilmington.

THE IOWA STATE CONFERENCE.

The first Iowa State Conference of Charities will be held in the city of Des Moines March 17-19, 1898.

The principal subject to be discussed will be the Organization of a State Board of Charities; whether such a board should be a state board of trustees with administrative powers, like the state boards of Wisconsin and Kansas; or an advisory board without administrative powers, like most of the state boards of charities. This question is one of great importance in the state of Iowa at present and is being earnestly debated in the state legislature. Prominent charity workers from other states have been invited to assist in the Conference and it is anticipated that a permanent organization will be established.

The various phases of charitable work will be discussed; particularly Charity Organization in Cities and the Administration of Public Charities. A general invitation is extended to all who are interested in the work in the state of Iowa.

THE MICHIGAN STATE CONFERENCE.

The sixteenth annual convention of the board of corrections and charities and conference of county agents were held jointly in Kalamazoo, on Wednesday and Thursday, December 8 and 9. The meetings summoned, aside from the citizens of the place, the county agents, the superintendents of state asylums and schools, the wardens of the prisons and all members of the state, county and private, benevolent, charitable, penal and reformatory institutions and societies. They are designed as a school of instruction better qualifying those who have these important trusts, and a means of informing citizens as to the working of the institutions supported by them.

This is illustrated by the subjects presented at the late meeting: The rights of children, the pardoning power, the relation of public education to crime and immorality of youth, how a county agent can perform his duty for $100, labor in prisons, the parole system and how it has worked.

These subjects were handled by experts, and each was fully discussed. The county agency system was reviewed partly by the reports of the agents.

On Thursday afternoon a very interesting exhibition of the work of the schools for the blind and the deaf was given by a number of pupils from each institution.

In connection with the meetings, the warden of Michigan state prison, the superintendent of the industrial home, a representative of the state school and the medical superintendent of the Michigan asylum gave accounts of their institutions.

The citizens of Kalamazoo showed their interest by their steady attendance at the court house. The music, vocal and instrumental, was furnished by the asylum bands and choirs. These annual gatherings, held in different sections of the state, cannot fail to educate and interest the people.—The Church Helper of Western Michigan.
